

Wolf Theiss expands its regional expertise with the promotion of six senior lawyers to counsel

Bucharest, Ljubljana, Vienna, Warsaw, Zagreb, 1 November 2024 – Wolf Theiss has announced the promotion of six senior lawyers to counsel, effective 1 November 2024. The newly appointed counsel are Anna Schwamberger (Austria), Borna Dejanović (Croatia), Bartosz Kopik (Poland), Marcin Żak (Poland), Luciana Tache (Romania) and Neja Nastran (Slovenia).

These promotions highlight Wolf Theiss' ongoing dedication to recognising talent and fostering a culture of excellence within the firm. Each new counsel brings significant experience and specialised expertise that will further strengthen the firm's regional capabilities.

Anna Schwamberger (Austria) is part of the Employment team, advising on executive agreements, employment disputes and M&A-related employment law. Her expertise includes personnel leasing and international employment matters, providing practical solutions to employers.

Borna Dejanović (Croatia) brings a wealth of experience in dispute resolution, particularly arbitration and litigation, with a focus on high-profile commercial and cross-border cases. His approach ensures effective representation in complex legal challenges.

Bartosz Kopik (Poland) advises on significant real estate and construction projects, including share and asset deals. He guides clients in the logistics, office and retail sectors through complex transactions and development processes, ensuring strategic outcomes.

Marcin Żak (Poland) focuses on real estate law, public-private partnerships and infrastructure projects. His extensive experience with commercial and residential developments supports clients in achieving their investment goals across diverse sectors.

Luciana Tache (Romania) is a key member of the Corporate and M&A team, with a strong focus on life sciences. Her practice encompasses advising on corporate transactions, regulatory compliance and commercial matters, assisting clients in navigating the complexities of the Romanian market.
