About

Stefan Horn has been with Wolf Theiss since 2017. He is a Partner and attorney-at-law in the Real Estate and Construction team in Vienna and specialises in real estate transactions, (commercial and private) tenancy law, and hospitality. He is experienced in advising clients in the hotel and tourism/leisure industry, in advising clients on project developments, and on the purchase and sale of hotels, office and commercial properties. Furthermore, he regularly advises on residential and commercial tenancy law. Stefan also gained extensive experience in the fields of building right, construction contract law, the Austrian Housing Development Contract Law (BTVG) and has comprehensive expertise in (real estate related) stamp duty law.

In addition to his work as a lawyer, he is a lecturer at Sigmund Freud University. Prior to joining Wolf Theiss, Stefan was an associate in the real estate team of an international commercial law firm. He then spent four years as an assistant at the Institute for Civil Law of the University of Vienna, and was a lecturer in civil law at the University of Vienna. Stefan holds a law degree from the University of Vienna and a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International Construction Law from the University of Vienna.
