

Wolf Theiss advises Kingswood Capital Management on its strategic investment in Infotree Global Solutions

Warsaw, 12 March 2025 – Wolf Theiss served as Polish counsel to Kingswood Capital Management, a private investment firm, on its strategic investment in Infotree Global Solutions, a prominent provider of international workforce management solutions primarily for U.S.-based Fortune 500 clients. The acquisition of Infotree Global Solutions further strengthens Kingswood's presence in the global workforce sector.

Kingswood Capital Management is a Los Angeles-based investment firm primarily focused on businesses that are undergoing varying degrees of operational, financial or market-driven change.

Infotree Global Solutions is a top provider of international workforce management solutions. The company holds a leading market position in Latin America and operates in over 80 countries worldwide.

Wolf Theiss worked alongside Goodwin Procter, Kingswood's lead counsel, with a mandate to manage all Polish-related aspects of this intricate multi-jurisdictional transaction. This included conducting legal due diligence on Infotree Poland, overseeing a pre-closing corporate reorganisation, preparing transaction documentation, securing financing and ensuring the successful completion of the deal.

The Wolf Theiss team advising Kingswood Capital Management was led by Partner Anna Dąbrowska, who provided the corporate M&A guidance. The team was further comprised of the following experts: Partner Bartosz Kuraś (Corporate M&A), Counsel Adrian Krzyżanowski (Banking & Finance) and Associate Oliwia Kruczyńska (Corporate M&A).
